Why should you learn Korean?

1. There are more than 75 million people who speak Korean. And it ranks as 18th in the most used languages in the world. This makes the language useful for travel, or business.
 2. Korean business relationships are an asset. Korea has the 12th largest economy in the world. Companies such as Samsung, Hyundai, and LG are constantly expanding. If and when your company decides to join Korean investors and markets, your Korean knowledge could put you to the front.
 3. The Korean language is considered to have the most logical system of writing in the world. The Korean alphabet Hangeul is very easy and Korean pronunciation is very logical. Korean has no verb conjugations and there are no noun genders in Korean.
 4. We all realize someone who is riding the “K-drama or the K-pop wave.” Because much like the Korean economy, Korean Pop music is also on the rise. Many K-Dramas are doing well just because they have massive global viewers. Fans that won’t understand anything without subtitles.
